

John Aeschliman Sr., Onecho Native, Dies

Funeral services for John Aeschliman Sr., 73, a native of the Onecho community who died Aug. 6 at the Whitman Community Hospital, Colfax, were held at 1:30 p.m. Aug. 9 at the Onecho Bible Church with burial in the Colfax cemetery. The Rev. Charles Lyman officiated.

Born Dec. 23, 1897 near Colfax, the son of the late Fred and Rosa Aeschliman, he spent his entire life on the family farm near Colfax in the Onecho area. On March 14, 1931 he married Katharine Gilbert at Almota.

Mr. Aeschliman was a member of the First Mennonite Church, now the Onecho Bible

Church, and a charter member of the Parvin Grange.

He is survived by his wife at home; three daughters, Mrs. Harold (Shirley) Isaak, Aberdeen, Idaho; Mrs. James (Karen) Goodrich, Missoula, Mont., and Mrs. James (Elinor) Huber, Pullman; one son, John E. Pullman; three brothers William and Sam E., both of Colfax, and Ira, San Diego, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Claassen, Spokane; Mrs. Elmer Widmer, Salem, Ore., 14 grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

The family suggests that memorials be made to the Onecho Bible Church Memorial Fund or the American Cancer Society.
